

This woman was important enough for Jesus to change his travel plans so that he could go through Samaria to meet this woman at the well. Jesus cared about her. He cared about that town. Jesus knew this woman's life. He knew her shame. But he also knew her heart. Jesus knew the woman would be at the well. He wanted to give her hope and forgiveness. He knew she would listen. He knew that when she accepted what He told her that her life would be changed. Do you feel like the woman at the well---full of shame? Hoping not to meet others to see their looks of condemnation? Maybe your life has not been so shameful, but you still feel empty inside---like there should be more to life than what you have found. That there must be more to "the spirit" for you. You are just as important to Jesus as was this woman at the well.

Do you wish you could have peace in your heart and mind?" Do you wish you could have a fountain of joy springing up inside of you that it flows over? Jesus said to ask of Him. He will give it to you. Jesus said this to a woman of Samaria, "Whoever drinketh of the water I that I shall give him shall never thirst. but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." John 4:14 Jesus forgives sins. He gives peace and joy. He gives life everlasting. Jesus went out of His way to meet this woman and talk to her. He knew what her life had been like. He told her---without her saying anything---all that she had done. She was amazed that He knew. Jesus knows all about you. He does not come to condemn and blame. He comes to save and bring forgiveness.

Fill Your Inner Longing With Living Water

A Samariatian woman had been married 5 times and was now living with a 6th man. She was shunned by the women of her village, so she went to the village well at a time when the other women would not be there.

Jesus was not near Samaria at this time, yet he knew about this woman. He knew she would be coming to the well at a certain time. Before the woman went to the well, while Jesus and his disciples were on the road, Jesus said to his disciples, "I must go through Samaria."

John 3:17,18 "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world,; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned. but he that believeth not is condemned already , because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Jesus knows your life and He knows your heart. Trust Him. He will change you. His Spirit will come into you to forgive you, to guide you, to fill you. If you stay believing in Jesus and walking with Him, , you will have everlasting life.

Pray this prayer: Jesus, forgive of all my sins. Make me clean. Give me Your spirit to be with me. Help me to learn of You and walk obeying You. I make you the Lord of my life. Amen.
