

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

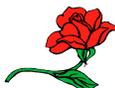

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

God said to the people---- "I will not forget thee.
Behold, I have graven (written) thee (your name) upon the
palms of my hands; thy (your) walls are continually before
me."

(Jerusalem's walls were broken down and the people felt
unsafe and afraid.) Isaiah 49:15, 16

God knows your situation.

